LOCKDOWN

Yes there is fear.
Yes there is isolation.
Yes there is panic buying.
Yes there is sickness.
Yes there is even death.
But,
They say that in Wuhan after so many years of noise
You can hear the birds again.

They say that after just a few weeks of quiet
The sky is no longer thick with fumes

But blue and grey and clear.
They say that in the streets of Assisi

People are singing to each other across the empty squares, keeping their windows open so that those who are alone may hear the sounds of family around them.

They say that a hotel in the West of Ireland is offering free meals and delivery to the housebound.

LOCKDOWN continued

Today a young woman I know is busy spreading fliers with her number through the neighbourhood so that the elders may have someone to call on.

Today Churches, Synagogues, Mosques and Temples are preparing to welcome and shelter the homeless,
the sick, the weary

All over the world people are slowing down and reflecting

All over the world people are looking at their neighbours in a new way

All over the world people are waking up to a new reality
To how big we really are.

To how little control we really have.

To what really matters.

To Love.

So we pray and we remember that
Yes there is fear.

But there does not have to be hate.

Yes there is isolation.

But there does not have to be loneliness.

Yes there is panic buying.

But there does not have to be meanness.

Yes there is sickness.

But there does not have to be disease of the soul

Yes there is even death.

But there can always be a rebirth of love.

Wake to the choices you make as to how to live now.

Today, breathe.

Listen, behind the factory noises of your panic

The birds are singing again

The sky is clearing,

Spring is coming,

And we are always encompassed by Love.

Open the windows of your soul

And though you may not be able to touch across the empty square,

Sing.

The Revd Canon Paul Hardingham considers sacrificial love

Why did Jesus die?

'God proved His love on the Cross. When Christ hung, and bled, and died, it was God saying to the world, 'I love you.' (Billy Graham).

God showed His love for us, when Jesus dealt with the problem of our sin on the cross. 'He himself bore our sins in His body on the tree, so that we might die to sins and live for righteousness; by His wounds you have been healed' (1 Peter 2:24). Jesus died in our place to bear our sin and guilt, to pay the full penalty for our sin and to set us free from death.

In the 75th anniversary year of the liberation of the Auschwitz Concentration Camp, it's appropriate to remember the story of Fr Maximilian Kolbe, a Polish priest imprisoned in Auschwitz.

On 31st July 1941 a prisoner escaped from the camp and in response the authorities selected ten men to die in the starvation bunker. One of the men, Francis Gajinisdek, cried, 'My poor wife and my children. They'll never see me again!' Then Kolbe stepped forward and said, "I'm a Catholic priest. I don't have a wife and children and I am willing to die instead of this man." He followed the other nine into the bunker. Remarkably he got the prisoners praying and singing hymns and transformed the atmosphere in the bunker. He was the last person to die and after two weeks he was given a lethal injection and died at the age of 47.

Jesus' death was even more amazing than this, because He didn't simply die for one man, but for every individual in the world. If you or I had been the only person in the world, Jesus Christ would still have died in our place.

'Hallelujah, what a Saviour'!!

(from Parish Pump).

WE ARE NOT ALONE

At time of writing, the coronavirus (COVID-19) pandemic is just beginning to affect many aspects of our daily lives. Streets are emptying, businesses are shutting their doors, people are self-isolating. It is one more reminder (as if we needed it) that we live in a fallen world of sickness, sin, suffering, and death. Ultimately, none of us are immune to any of these things.

But that's why the gospel is such good news. God has not left us alone in this world of sickness, sin, suffering, and death. He has come to us in the person of Jesus. The greatest news in all the world is that Jesus lived a life with no sin, died on a cross to pay the price for our sin, and rose from the grave in victory over sin and death. Now anyone anywhere who turns from their sin and trusts in Jesus will be forgiven of all their sin and restored to relationship with God forever. That means that through Jesus, we never have to fear sickness or death because we know we have eternal life with God.

Times like these remind us all of the fragility of life and the inevitability of death. So let's spread the greatest news that death has been defeated and eternal life is available to all who trust in Jesus.

Additionally, let's remember that God is bigger, His love is stronger, than any virus, or any fear of illness or anything else. God who is the same yesterday, today, tomorrow and forever. He is the same whatever else in our society or our daily lives changes. So let us Trust in God, the good and sovereign Creator and Sustainer of life upon whom we all depend.

And as a Church, while we are used traditionally to gathering together under one roof, if for good reasons people do not want to leave their homes, let us nevertheless be a church that reaches out to those who are sick, those who are self-isolating, those who are fearful or lonely. We at Holy Trinity are here to pray for others, and to care for others in practical ways.

If you know somebody who is in need in any way, maybe through a phone call, a prayer, or some other input, please do let us know (we have many qualities, but we are not mind-readers).

Tina Upton

Grandad was babysitting when he heard his little grand-daughter muttering the alphabet over in hushed tones. "What are you doing?" he asked her. "I'm praying," she replied. "I can't think of the right words so I just say all the letters. God will put them together for me 'cos He knows what I'm thinking."

Guidance on Spiritual Communion and Coronavirus

From the Church of England website. As the church has had to completely close now, we will all have to make our own communion with God at home. The following may be helpful for you in that.

The term 'Spiritual Communion' has been used historically to describe the means of grace by which a person, prevented for some serious reason from sharing in a celebration of the Eucharist, nonetheless shares in the communion of Jesus Christ. The form of prayer below offers Christians an opportunity to give thanks for their communion with him, particularly at times when they would ordinarily be present at the Eucharist.

The Book of Common Prayer instructs us that if we offer ourselves in penitence and faith, giving thanks for the redemption won by Christ crucified, we may truly 'eat and drink the Body and Blood of our Saviour Christ', although we cannot receive the sacrament physically in ourselves. Making a Spiritual Communion is particularly fitting for those who cannot receive the sacrament at the great feasts of the Church, and it fulfils the duty of receiving Holy Communion 'regularly, and especially at the festivals of Christmas, Easter and Whitsun or Pentecost' (Canon B 15).

The Church of which we are members is not defined by the walls of a building but by the Body of Christ of which we are members. In making our communion spiritually, we are joining with Christians everywhere to be nourished by the one who tells us, 'I am the Bread of Life'.

In making a Spiritual Communion, you may wish to pray all or part of what follows on page 11, as you are able.

An act of Spiritual Communion

You may wish to find a space for prayer in front of a cross, a candle, or a special place. You might choose to make your Spiritual Communion at a particular time of day, or after viewing a live streamed service.

REFLECT on the day and on your relationships.

- What good things have come from God today?
- Where have I fallen short?
- What might I do tomorrow?

You may wish to SAY OR PRAY
Lord, have mercy.
Christ, have mercy.
Lord, have mercy.

READ the following words from Scripture. If you have access to today's readings for Holy Communion, you may wish to read and reflect on them.

Jesus said, 'I am the bread of life. Whoever comes to me will never be hungry, and whoever believes in me will never be thirsty.'

John 6.35

PRAY for the needs of the world, for your local community, and for those close to you. End with the Lord's Prayer.

Our Father...

GIVE THANKS for the saving death and resurrection of Jesus and ask him to be with you now.

Thanks be to you, Lord Jesus Christ, for all the benefits you have given me, for all the pains and insults you have borne for me. Since I cannot now receive you sacramentally, I ask you to come spiritually into my heart.

O most merciful redeemer, friend and brother, may I know you more clearly, love you more dearly, and follow you more nearly, day by day. Amen.

after the Prayer of St Richard of Chichester

CONCLUDE with the following:
The Lord bless us, and preserve us from all evil, and keep us in eternal life. Amen.

Bible Bite

A short story from the Bible

It can be read in the Bible in Luke 22:24, John 13:3-17

Jesus and his disciples were celebrating the Passover with the special meal. The disciples were bickering again.

I'm most important because I've known him the longest

But I'm the oldest!

I've given up the most to follow him!

There was a reason why no-one wanted to be the least important - the roads were mud and everyone's feet got very dirty.

It was the job of the least important servant to wash everyone's feet...

The disciples didn't have a servant, and none of them wanted to do the feet washing...

Jesus took off his outer robe and tied a towel around his waist.

He filled a large bowl with water and started washing the disciples' feet.

Peter couldn't believe what he was seeing!

Are you really going to wash my feet?

You will understand later why I am doing this.

I can't ever let you serve me like this!

If you don't let me, you will no longer be my disciple

Then wash all of me!

If you've had a bath, then you only need your feet washing!

Once Jesus had washed all their feet, he put his robe back on and sat down.

Do you understand why I, your teacher, did this? I am setting you the example of how you are to serve each other. Do it, and God will bless you.

60 years ago

On 12th August 1953, the record St Chad's Church Committee, [attended by the Rector (Rev C. Monkman), Mrs Monkman, Mr Bailey, Mr and Mrs Douthwaite, Mr Gent, Mr Hitchen, Mrs Douswell, and Mrs Carter] reads as follows:

“The Church Commissioners and the city surveyor offered three new sites for a new church, church hall and vicarage. The site adjoining the Highfield Hotel was rejected outright and a discussion followed relating to the two sites on the part of the housing estate which is now being developed.”

After some discussion, they resolved that “a site behind the civic centre and in line with the Saughall Road over the railway bridge, and past the school, be accepted.” By September 1954 the site offered had moved, and the minutes record that “the siting of this new church was not liked.” The hope was that building was due to start the following year, with the cost born by a loan from the Diocese of £30,000, to be repaid by the parish.

In the end, the Church Foundation Stone was laid by the Bishop of Chester (Rt Rev Gerald Ellison) on Saturday 20th December 1958. The new building was finally consecrated at a service at 8pm on Saturday 16th April 1960.

To mark our 60th birthday, we will be holding a display of the history of Blacon over the last 60 years around then.

If you have anything you would like to contribute to our celebrations, please do contact the Rector.

Blind spots – or spotting blindness?

I have recently been studying something called ‘reflexivity.’ It means working out what assumptions I have and trying to understand how they affect the way I behave. Great in principle, but almost impossible in practice. The problem is that I don’t notice my assumptions. Reflexivity is a way of examining my ‘blind spots’. But the clue is in the title – they’re the things that I can’t see and don’t know about myself!

The psalmist puts it lyrically:

Search me, God, and know my heart;
test me and know my anxious thoughts.

See if there is any offensive way in me,
and lead me in the way everlasting.

(Psalm 139:23-24)

Great, but how?

God’s word is ‘live and active. Sharper than any double-edged sword, it penetrates even to dividing soul and spirit, joints and marrow; it judges the thoughts and attitudes of the heart. Nothing in all creation is hidden from God’s sight. Everything is uncovered and laid bare before the eyes of him to whom we must give account’ (Heb 4:12-13). Praying and contemplating God’s words helps me to test my values and actions. Its where He exposes my blinds spots, and its often uncomfortable!

God invites each of us to identify and confess our personal failings and those of our whole community, trusting in his promise of forgiveness and restoration (Ps 32:5, 69:5, James 4:7-10, 1 John 1:9). As Christians we seek justice for people failed by society’s ‘blind spots.’

People in debt, unemployed, suffering illness and disability. Those who work long hours in multiple jobs to provide for their families. Those who suffer loss and bereavement. The list is endless.

As we journey through Lent towards the cross, we do so in the knowledge that this is not the end of the story. The church stands as a prophetic sign of resurrection to demonstrate God's justice and mercy. We glimpse that resurrection in the friendships at the café and Playtots. We see it in the generosity of volunteers. It is visible in the beauty that the gardening project brings to the church, and kindness people who put on holiday lunches and activities. These are the places where the church demonstrates that it lives by a different script: the life, death and resurrection of Jesus. A script that exposes society's blind spots.

FURTHER PRAYERS YOU MAY WISH TO USE

Lord Jesus Christ,
you said to your disciples,
'I am with you always'.
Be with me today, as I offer myself to you.
Hear my prayers for others and for myself, and keep me in your care.
Amen.

O God,
help me to trust you, help me to know that you are with me, help me to believe that nothing can separate me from your love revealed in Jesus Christ our Lord.
Amen.

Lord, in these days of mercy,
make us quiet and prayerful;
in these days of challenge,
make us stronger in you;
in these days of emptiness,
take possession of us;
in these days of waiting,
open our hearts to the mystery of your cross.
Amen

Almighty God, Father of all mercies, we your unworthy servants give you most humble and hearty thanks for all your goodness and loving kindness.
We bless you for our creation, preservation, and all the blessings of this life; but above all for your immeasurable love in the redemption of the world by our Lord Jesus Christ, for the means of grace, and for the hope of glory.
And give us, we pray, such a sense of all your mercies that our hearts may be unfeignedly thankful, and that we show forth your praise, not only with our lips but in our lives, by giving up ourselves to your service, and by walking before you in holiness and righteousness all our days;
through Jesus Christ our Lord, to whom, with you and the Holy Spirit, be all honour and glory,
for ever and ever.
Amen
